Morning Oregonian.

VOL. XVII.—NO. 125. PORTLAND, OREGON: FRIDAY, JUNE 29, 1877. PRICE—TEN CENTS.

GENERAL NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Iowa Republican Convention.

DES MOINES, June 27.—The Republican convention met at 10 A. M., Hon. James F. Wilson, of Jefferson county, was made temporary chairman and addressed the convention briefly. During his remarks he stated that there would be no discussion in the convention, but the Iowa standard of Republicanism would not be lowered or its flag be trailed in the dust. After the appointment of committees, the convention adjourned till 2 o'clock P.M.

James F. Wilson made a glorious speech this afternoon. He is a "dark horse," and will be nominated for governor unless Gear gets it on the first ballot. Packard is present and will speak this afternoon.

LATER.—John H. Gear was unanimously nominated governor by the Republican convention on the first ballot. The committee on resolutions unanimously agreed on a report which does not even allude to the southern policy or to civil service. Hon. Frank T. Campbell, of Jasper county, was nominated for lieutenant-governor.

When the nominations were announced for supreme justice, the present incumbent Chief Justice Day was almost unanimously called for. Prof. Von Coellen was nominated superintendent of public instruction. The committee on resolutions reported the following:

That the United States of America is a nation not a league; that, by combined workings of national and state governments, the rights of every citizen should be secured; to fail to do this is criminal neglect of duty.

That the Republican party has preserved the government, and its work is unfinished.

That permanent pacification of the south, and complete protection of all citizens in the free enjoyment of their rights, is a duty to which the Republican party stands sacredly pledged. Congress constitutionally empowered to enforce the provisions of recent constitutional amendments and it is the duty of the legislative and executive departments to put in immediate and vigorous exercise all their constitutional powers for removing, by the strong hand of national law and national welfare removable cause of complaint by any class, and to secure to all American citizens exact equality in the enjoyment of all rights. We therefore demand of congress and the president a courage and fidelity which will not falter until the results are placed beyond dispute or recall.

That the public credit should be sacredly maintained and debts paid, and we therefore favor specie resumption. The silver dollar having been the coinage was suspended, should be restored at the earliest possible day and silver made a full legal tender for the payment of all debts public and private. We also believe that the present volume of currency should be maintained until the wants of trade and commerce demand its further contraction.

The other resolutions are local in character.

Risley attempted amid a great uproar, hoots and shouts to get in as an amendment a resolution endorsing the president's policy, but the chair ruled it out of order. Another attempt was made by another member with better success, and all the resolutions were adopted en masse. Mr. Cutts then moved the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That the so called southern policy of Grant has been inaugurated and pursued by the present administration, is not in accordance with the principles of the Republican party.

This was received amid general tumult. Dr. Brindley, of Des Moines county, moved it be laid on the committee on resolutions. Mr. Brown, of Keokuk county, moved amid great excitement that it be tabled: adopted by a three quarter vote.

A resolution for a stringent prohibitory law was adopted by a divided majority.

A Resolution of Endorsement.

CONCORD, N. H., June 27.—In the house yesterday Sinclair, Democrat, introduced a resolution of unqualified approval of acts of the administration in removing U. S. troops from and restoring self-government in Florida, Louisiana and South Carolina, and protesting office-holders from holding the machinery of politics for the purpose of controlling organization, and declaring no assessment for political purposes on office-holders shall be allowed. On motion of Stevens the resolution was, by a strict party vote, referred to the committee on national affairs.

Miners Killed.

PHILLIPSBURG, N. J., June 27.—Yesterday seven miners engaged in drawing a bucket filled with ore from a mine in Sussex county, struck the rope on a stone and cut it in two. Five men were precipitated into a washed out ravine and four of them, Baxter Jones, Wm. Oliver, Henry Peters and Richard Apgar were killed.

Speech by Curtis.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., June 27.—Geo. Wm. Curtis delivered the Chancellor's address at the Commencement of Union College to-day. In closing said of President Hayes:

A public spirit so lofty. It is not confined to other and distant lands. You are conscious of its stirring in your souls. It calls you to congregate here and I am here to bid you obey the call. Such action may be ours; let it be your portion, as it shall be yours. Bollingbroke described a perfect King in England. I can imagine a perfect President in America. Can see him in the service of a party, and called to administer a government when sectional jealousy is at the party passion most inflamed. I can see him seeing clearly what justice and humanity, the national law and national welfare require, and resolved to do! I can imagine him steadily enduring, not only the mad cry of the hour, the taunt of recreant and traitor, of coward, but what is harder to some men, the doubt, the grief the despair of those as sincerely devoted as he to the nation's welfare. I imagine him pushing by hurting the heart, the intelligence the conscience of his countrymen, healing angry wounds, correcting misunderstandings, planning justice on all occasions, whether his party rises or falls; his country heavenward to more perfect prosperity and peace. This is the spirit of statesmanship that girds the commonwealth with resplendence, the moral law, the invulnerable armor of righteousness, the celestial secret of a great and happy people.

Titled a Lie D.

The honorary degree of LL. D. was conferred upon Wm. A. Wheeler, Vice-President.

Fires.

CINCINNATI, June 28.—A fire this morning destroyed John Wolff's feed store and several adjoining houses. Loss, $4,500.

WHEELING, June 28.—The brick carriage factory of Hill Bros., Middlesex, was burned this morning. Loss, $60,000; partially insured.

Sale of Blooded Horses.

There was a large attendance yesterday at Alexander's sale of blooded horses at Lexington, Kentucky. The great feature of the sale was five yearlings, the get of the celebrated horse Lexington,—W. H. Johnson, of Louisville, purchasing one for $3,100. Total sales realized by sale, $16,500.

Robbery—Cool Demand by the Robbers.

CHEYENNE, N. T., June 28.—Another coach robbery last night. The stage from Deadwood was stopped near Cheyenne river. Both treasure boxes were taken, but the passengers were not molested. The road agents sent word by the driver to the managers of the stage line to send them a pair of gold scales, as dividing dust with a spoon is not always satisfactory. A detachment of 20 cavalrymen, under Lieut. Reynolds, left for Larramie this morning in search of the robbers.

Reduced Wages.

CLEVELAND, O., June 27.—C. H. Vanderbilt, president of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroad, has just issued a circular stating that, on and after July 1st a reduction of 10 per cent. will be made in the present compensation of all officers and employés of every grade in the service of the company where the amount received exceeds $1 per hour, $1 per day, or $30 per month.

Asking to be Hanged.

COLUMBUS, O., June 28.—A singular, perhaps unprecedented, criminal case has just been passed upon by Judge Bingham in the common pleas court. Mrs. Sarah M. Victor, who was convicted in Cuyahoga county of murder and sentenced to be hanged, but afterwards had her sentence commuted by the governor to life imprisonment, confessed her crime while in prison, and subsequently becoming moody and tired of such life applied to the courts of this city to have the original sentence carried out on the ground that she never consented to the commutation. This was in January, 1876. Judge Bingham has had the case under advisement 18 months and now renders the opinion that Mrs. Victor is in law an escaped prisoner after conviction, and has issued an order to the sheriff for her delivery to the authorities of Cuyahoga county to await action by the courts of that county.

Hayes' Speech at Harvard.

BOSTON, June 27.—President Hayes and party visited Harvard college to-day and witnessed the commencement exercises. He was received with distinguished honors, and being introduced by President Elliott to the graduating class, said:

Graduates of Harvard University: This is your day. I may not, I ought not, to take up any particle of your valuable time. You will therefore excuse me, I am sure, if I take my seat after saying, in the briefest way, what I feel in my heart, and I assure you that I have a very grateful appreciation of this hearty greeting. I know how little it is deserved. God grant that during the remainder of my term I may be able to do something to deserve it. [Deafening and long continued applause.]

Brief speeches were made by Gov. Rice, Geo. Bancroft, Postmaster-General Key, Secretary Schurz, Prof. Lowell, and Senator Bayard. After singing "Auld Lang Syne," the president and party withdrew, and returned to Boston to be present at the banquet given by the city.

Banquet to and Speech by Hayes.

BOSTON, June 27.—The banquet to the President to night was a fitting conclusion of the brilliant reception. It was given in Brunswick hall and two hundred were present, including the chief notables in the city: Longfellow, Emerson, Oliver Wendell Holmes, Lowell and others. The president visited the tabernacle at a later hour, and eight thousand people were in attendance at the festival concert given in his honor. He retired at 10:15. He then returned to the banquet and the literary portion began. In response to a toast by the mayor the President said:

I would wish if possible to convey to you the very deep satisfaction I have felt on my visit to Boston. I know indeed this reception, this welcome, is not for me individually. No individual ever deserved or ever will deserve such kindness and courtesy as I have received. Boston, in this speaks her love of the Union. [Applause.] Her regard for equal human rights. [Prolonged applause.] Her aspiration for restored harmony and peace. God grant that Boston, Massachusetts and our whole people may enjoy the blessings, the love of which brings you together in this spirit to night. I beg you to receive my heartiest acknowledgements for your kindness. [Applause and cheers.]

Gov. Rice was then called up in response to the sentiment, "The State of Massachusetts," and made a happy response, complimenting the President handsomely, especially endorsing his course toward the South and alluding kindly to ex-President Grant.

The President's Movements.

PROVIDENCE, June 28.—President Hayes and party left Boston at 8 o'clock this morning for Providence. At Mansfield the party was met by a committee of the Rhode Island legislature, and after an exchange of greeting, Mr. Tillinghast, of Connecticut, said:

Mr. President, it affords me the highest pleasure to be permitted on behalf of the joint select committee of the general assembly to welcome to the freedom and to the hospitality of the state of Rhode Island, the chief magistrate of the United States. We welcome you as a chosen ruler of a free and happy people, and as a true representative of the best government known to mankind. Our people have anticipated your visit to Rhode Island with ever increasing delight and enthusiasm, and they are eager to assure you by unmistakable evidence, that they appreciate your efforts on behalf of truth, honesty and good government. To the members of your cabinet and to all other persons comprising your party, I extend a like cordial welcome. Rhode Island opens wide her doors to receive her distinguished guests, and she will reckon it her highest honor by greatly honoring them. The land of Roger Williams says welcome to the nation's president. A more formal reception will be tendered to you, sir, by his excellency, the governor, on your arrival at Providence.

The president, in response, simply expressed thanks for the cordial reception tendered.

The gaily-decked train proceeded to Providence, slowing at Attleboro, where at the state line a salute of 21 guns was fired.

The railroad through Central Falls and Pawtucket was lined with enthusiastic people. The President appeared on the platform, but the train didn't stop. When it arrived at the station in Providence Exchange place, all except the reserved space was a solid mass of people who were in a most enthusiastic mood. The President's salute was fired as the train came in. The President alighted and was escorted to a carriage in military line already formed and waiting. The line was under command of Maj. Gen. Burnside, composed of 1,200 volunteers of Rhode Island, with the 1st light infantry regiment as an escort. The column escorting the President moved to the executive mansion. The streets on the route of march were profusely decorated. The population turned out en masse, and the throng which made the sidewalks impassable during the passage of the President's carriage was largely swelled from the surrounding towns and neighboring States. At the executive mansion the President was taken in charge by a committee of the veteran association and proceeded to the City of Newport, specially chartered for his accommodation, and at 11:30 o'clock embarked for Rocky Point, accompanied by Gov. Van sant and Senator Anthony, state officers, and nearly all members of the general assembly.

Telegraphic Exhibition.

PROVIDENCE, R. I.—The Rock Point telegraph is being used for telephone experiments for the gratification of the president, so the story of the clam bake will not be told this afternoon. The president and company and resident soldiers of other states are in full force. At the executive mansion the president was met by Gov. Van sant, who addressed him as follows:

Mr. President—It is my privilege to welcome you to the state of Rhode Island, to our hospitalities, to our halls and our homes. We can only regret the period of your visit, necessarily so brief, will not enable us to show you the great interests of our state. We pray that heaven will crown the days of your stay among us with sunshine, and we will endeavor to strew it with flowers. I welcome you in the name of the state, and no words of mine can add anything to the eloquence that you will see in the eyes and read in the faces, and hear in the voices of all our men, women and children as you move along our crowded thoroughfares. I welcome you, sir, most cordially.

President Hayes replied as follows:

Governor—All the people of the United States know something of the little state of Rhode Island; something of its past; something of what it is. I am sure that you will understand me when I say the welcome and this reception are very gratifying to me, not that I understand to be on personal accounts, but because Rhode Island believes, as I do, in one of the great sentiments of New England's great statesman and orators which I was reminded of at the ancient town of Attleboro. An old citizen of that town handed me a note, in which he said the reason the people believed in the sentiment I have alluded to of Webster, a sentiment which I am sure you will agree with, and one that the government of the United States should not forget, it is, we have one country, one constitution and one destiny.

LIVERPOOL, June 28.—Upwards of two hundred gentlemen, including representatives of all the public bodies in town, attended the banquet given Gen. Grant, which was held in the large hall room of the town hall, and was a grand affair. Gen. Grant, who was in uniform, was received with the greatest enthusiasm. Next to Gen. Grant sat Lt.-Gen. Sir Henry De Bathe, commander of the forces in the northern district.

LONDON, June 28. — After ex-President Grant's return from Liverpool he has no special engagement until July 3d. On the 4th of July Minister Pierrepont will give a reception at his residence, exclusively to Americans in London, when Gen. Grant will be present.

THE TERRITORIES.

S. Coulter, of Olympia, has gone to San Francisco with 95,000 lbs of wool bought by him at the sound. If the market there is not satisfactory, he will go east with it.

The Olympia and Tenino Railroad is a live issue in Thurston county. Several wealthy farmers have expressed the opinion that the county would be better of without than with the railroad. The railroad board has invited all such residents to emigrate to Sitka.

Seattle is talking of raising a company of cavalry to go across the mountains and fight the Indians. They expect to equip themselves, only calling upon the government to furnish or pay for their horses, and trusting for their own pay to the passage of an act of Congress by and by.

LATEST WAR NEWS.

Operations in Asia Minor.

LONDON, June 27.—Latest advices report the Russian center has been reinforced by the 20th division from Kars. Eighteen thousand men detached from the center have advanced to Surakamijish.

The Turkish center reinforced by a division of 18 battalions advanced two miles in front of Zewin, where the Ottoman headquarters still remain. The Turkish right is still reported pursuing the Russian left.

Intelligence received at Erzeroum states that the Russian bombardment of Kars is slackening.

ERZEROUM, June 28.—Mukhtar Pasha was in Yenikoi on the 25th and was expected with the center at Zewin on the 26th.

A Battle at Dijar.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 27.—An official telegram from Gen. Tergukassoff reports that on June 21st his column was attacked near Dijar by 20 battalions of Turks with 12 guns and 4,500 horse. After ten hours' fighting the Turks were repulsed, but the Russian loss was heavy, namely: 15 officers and 51 soldiers killed and 303 wounded. The Russians fought gallantly against overwhelming numbers.

The Bombardment of Kars.

Nine batteries with 36 guns line the newly constructed works before Kars. The bombardment proceeds with redoubled vigor.

The Fight near Delibaba.

LONDON, June 27.—Gen. Tergukassoff's account of the fighting near Delibaba on the 22d states that some skirmishes occurred that day, and that the Turks were afterwards allowed to collect their dead in Russian positions. This is a denial of previous Turkish reports.

Another Fight near Batoum.

A Russian official dispatch, dated Katzubani, near Batoum, June 25, says the Turks attacked the right wing's position on the 24th inst. The fight lasted 8½ hours. The Turks were repulsed with great loss. The Russians lost 150 killed and wounded.

The War in Montenegro.

CETTINJE, June 27.—The Montenegrin army is concentrated in a very strong position opposite Spuz and Podgoritza. The morale seems good, and the prince is determined to fight for every foot of ground, should the Turks advance on Montenegrin territory.

VIENNA, June 27.—Accounts from Dalmatia represent the position of the Montenegrins as quite despe ate. Their forces are entirely broken and dispersed.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 27.—Mehemit Ali confirms the reports of the occupation of the hights of Tchiik, Montenegro. Turks have advanced to the river Moratscha and burned 1,510 houses on the upper and lower Moratscha, but spared the churches and monasteries. They encountered 5,000 Montenegrins, and after six hours' fighting defeated them with a loss of 1,500. The Turks' loss was 89 killed and 79 wounded.

DANILOGRAD, June 27.—A courier from Moratcha reports that a battle took place between 2,000 Montenegrins and the body of the army of Mehemet Ali, who was incorrectly reported to have withdrawn to Selnitza. The Turks attacked on three sides were routed and pursued to Kalashin.

Complaint from the Turks.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 27.—The Porte has telegraphed its representatives abroad a note begging cabinets to take cognizance of the destruction with explosives of four Ottoman merchant vessels by the Russians, which is contrary to the rule of international law.

The Triple Alliance.

BRUSSELS, June 27.—The Independence Belge says Italian rumors authorize the belief that since May 16th, German diplomacy has intervened at Vienna and London to strengthen again the alliance of the three Emperors and oblige England to accept. In consequence of this alliance in the East, this movement is explained by the far-seeing as Napoleon Cesarism installed again in France, constituting with Spain on one side and Austria on the other, a clerical coalition under the auspices of the Vatican as formidable for rights of sovereigns as for the interests of the liberal communities of central Europe.

Bismarck's Plan.

There's an article in the Berlin Post suggesting a transfer of the European Turkish provinces to Austria, the Greek provinces accepted. It is said to be inspired by Bismarck who does not wish Russia to get too much territory. His understanding with the Czar is perfect, and here is possibly some foundation for the statement that Germany and Russia have a secret treaty of alliance, and this causes much of the hesitation characterizing the action of the British cabinet.

A British Interpellator.

LONDON, June 27.—In the house of commons, Cowan, member from Newcastle-on-Tyne, gave notice that he would to-morrow ask about the destruction of the Rustchuk consulate, and whether it is a breach of international law.

Don't like to be Shelled.

The consuls at Rustchuk are drawing up a protest against Russians bombarding their residences, as being against all principles of international law. The object of the Russians in bombarding Rustchuk is to reduce the town and to compel it to capitulate and thus save a long and regular siege.

More Men than Money.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 27.—At a council of ministers yesterday, Radif Pasha promised to raise 200,000 more men in two months provided the porte furnished money.

The Roumanian Chambers.

The Chamber of Deputies have come to an agreement with the minister relative to the budget. It only made some insignificant reductions, to which the government assented. The Chamber adopted a resolution calling upon the government to settle the Montenegrin question regardless of any threatened interference of Europe. The session will probably be closed to-day.

Milan's Visit to the Czar.

According to the latest version, the journey of Prince Milan is said to have had one positive result namely, an understanding about the ultimate co-operation of Servia and Roumania. Both states volunteered to co-operate with Russia, who, however, declines to identify her cause with theirs. Russia has to a certain extent left to both freedom of action to undertake ventures at their own risk beyond the sphere of Russian military operations, and it is quite possible that Princes Charles and Milan may have endeavored to combine their action.

Austrian Troops on the Frontier.

VIENNA, June 27.—A Vienna dispatch contains a list showing that the Austrians have thirty-eight thousand eight hundred men on the frontier provinces of Dalmatia, Croatia, Sclavonia, Banat and Transylvania. All orders for further reinforcements seem to have been countermanded during the past few days.

Hungary's Attitude.

VIENNA, June 27.—The Hungarian as well as Austrian press express almost unqualified satisfaction at the speech of Minister Tissia in the Hungarian diet, Tuesday.

Russians in Dobrudscha.

KUSTENJIE, June 27.—The Russian cavalry are spreading over the interior of Dobrudscha, but the infantry follows slowly. The authorities here are preparing to evacuate.

The Perturbation in England.

NEW YORK, June 28.—The Times' London special says: There is nothing in the present condition of affairs in England to warrant a particularly hopeful view of the situation. Serious differences in the British cabinet still exist, with no prospect of settlement. The trouble is that the members cannot agree upon the sum to be asked for in the vote of credit, three of the gent emen in the cabinet opposing the measure altogether. The difficulties surrounding the government begin to tell seriously upon Beaconsfield, and his health, which for several years has been none of the strongest, gives evidence of breaking down entirely. He looks very ill, and his friends express great anxiety in regard to his condition. The news from Constantinople is far from encouraging. The Sultan is reported to be firm in his opposition to all suggestions of peace. In the meantime Russia is busy proposing terms to Austria in relation to Servia, under which it is intimated she will be allowed to cross the Danube under the guns of Gludova. Added to all, there are evidences of a still closer relationship between Germany and Russia, making the outlook anything but a cheerful one for Turkey.

The Chicago Tribune's London special says the cabinet councils last week were of a stormy character. Lord Beacons field wished to obtain supplementary credit for a large amount of unforeseen circumstances which might arise. The Standard to day publishes a paragraph which has the air of officialism, to the effect that the government can see no necessity for asking the house to grant a supplementary vote and the assertion that parliament will be adjourned in August. English papers complain loudly of the demolition of the British consulate at Rustchuk, which they characterize as something more than disregard for ordinary obligations of civilized warfare.

Russians Still Crossing.

CHICAGO, June 28.—The Tribune's Vienna correspondent telegraphs that a large detachment of the Russ an army crossed the Danube at Gladova without opposition. The Turks seem to have been lulled into fancied security by the long delay which has attended the Russian advance and to have allowed themselves to be taken completely by surprise. The whole Russian army is now in motion, and within a few days news of the gravest importance may be looked for. The Russian headquarters will be temporarily established at Bulgasca.

The Work on Widdin.

The work of reducing Widdin has been entrusted to Prince Charles and his soldiers, and they are losing no time in taking their part in the struggle. Already the Roumanian batteries have opened fire on the devoted town which is now face to face with all the attendant horrors of active siege. It is probable Widdin will be obstinately defended.

Desperate Fighting.

The Russians were crossing the Danube last night near Sistova, not far from Rantra, assisted by islands between the banks. Terrible fighting is going on, the Turks doing their utmost to resist the enemy. Another crossing is confidently expected at Tlemunda, opposite Nicopolis.

All the troops of Gen. Zimerman have crossed the Danube at Galatz.

The London Times on the Laws of War.

LONDON, June 27.—The Times says neutral states are painfully interested by the report that the Russians have been violating the laws of war by the infliction of wanton injury. If they deliberately directed their guns against the consulates and defenseless parts of Rustchuk, their guilt is surpassed only by their folly, and that folly would be more glaring because, if as reported, they continued to fire at the English consulate after the consul hoisted the American flag they have gone out of the way to assail a power peculiarly friendly to themselves. It is difficult to believe the Russians would have deliberately inflicted such an outrage.

Cossacks in Hirzova.

Hirzova has been seized by the Cossacks, and is now held by his imperial majesty of all the Russias, who will soon be as much at home on the Danube as he is on the Volga.

General War Notes.

CHICAGO, June 27.—The Tribune's London special says official telegrams of the successes of the Turkish army in Asia are published, but receive little credit.

Kars still holds out against the Russians, who outnumber the Turks three to one. The Turks have only a hundred rifled and 50 smooth-bore guns, but their strong position at Karadah enables them to hold the enemy at bay.

The Russians at Bayazid are said to have capitulated.

The Czar has ordered another army corps from the interior to the lower Danube.

The Grand Vizier has authorized the release of civil prisoners at Rustchuk, numbering 400, whose lives, owing to the bombardment, are endangered.

BUCHAREST, June 27.—The Czar is day went to Turner Margelli. Vigorous cannonading continues along the Danube.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 27.—Subscriptions have been opened in aid of the war in all the towns of Tunis.

VIENNA, June 27.—One hundred and twenty Russians have been killed by the bombardment of Guirgevo.

BUCHAREST, June 27.—The Roumanians succeeded in silencing one Turkish battery at Widdin and one at Rahova.

VIENNA, June 27.—The passage through Montenegro by Suleman Pasha to Podgoritza, without his dingarly position in the principality, is said to be due to a warning from Constantinople not to enroll matters by bearing too hard upon Montenegro, on behalf of which Russia recently wished to induce Austria to intervene.

KEY RIKOI, June 27.—The affair of the 21st near Delibaba was very severe. The Russians fell back on the following day with very heavy loss. The Turks had about 400 killed and 2,000 wounded. Upwards of a thousand with undressed wounds are on the road to Erzeroum.

ERZEROUM, Monday—Wounded are coming here in large numbers. Hospital comforts and physicians are badly needed. The American missionaries, Pierce and Cole, offered their services as assistants.

BUCHAREST, June 27.—The Russian general who was wounded at Giurgevo has died in the hospital here. Gen. Roth was previously reported to have been wounded.

Two Turkish monitors which were caught by low water in one of the branches of the Danube, near Matchin, have been summoned by the Russians to surrender. The Russians are very anxious to capture these monitors uninjured.

The Wellesley affair has been most satisfactorily arranged. Col. Wellesley had an interview with Prince Gorlschakoff to-day, who invited him to join the emperor's personal headquarters.

BUCHAREST, June 28.—The fourth army corps from the interior of Russia is now entering Roumania via Belgrade.

CATTARO, June 28.—All the Turkish regulars in Herzegovina have been ordered to march to Albania, whither stores and provisions have been dispatched from all districts between Metkovich and Mostar.

ERZEROUM, June 28.—A Russian column, fifteen thousand strong, has arrived before Khorassan in the rear of the Turkish centre. Capt. Mehemet, with a brigade, has occupied Kuhrikat to the west of Khorassan. Nine hundred and eight wag

The Daily Oregonian.

FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 29, 1877.

THE MEDIUM OF NEWS

It is the business of the OREGONIAN to furnish the news for the entire northwest This field it occupies and intends to fill No other paper has any facilities and resources for obtaining news and people look to the OREGONIAN for fulness and variety of intelligence from all quarters. Many papers of local value are published in different parts of the wide region throughout which the OREGONIAN is read as the only general newspaper With these local journals this paper is on the best of terms, and has no controversy whatever But local matter alone will not make a newspaper anywhere, and most of these journals, some daily and some weekly attempt to add an interesting feature by compilation of general news It is all taken from the OREGONIAN in most instances it is a reprint of what appears in the columns of this paper, or if changed at all is abridged and spoiled It is much more amusing than exasperating to observe that a daily publication called the Standard issued in Portland, puts forth a claim to be an important newspaper, simply because it reprints, usually in a form so mutilated and condensed that all the interest is taken out of it, a portion of the matter that appears in the OREGONIAN Our dispatches special and general special correspondence and other matter it lays hold of, gives no credit makes no acknowledgement and often spoils what it reprints in trying to shorten it, and though it has no other news matter than it obtains in, his way and though this sort of work gives it the only interest it possesses, it sets up a claim to be a newspaper Nor is it alone in this. It has imitators here and elsewhere that try to live by reprinting a portion of the news which has already appeared in full in the OREGONIAN The real cheek of this appears in the call they frequently issue — Subscribe for the Swashbuckler, the best general news paper in the state!" But it is known universally that the only medium of news for the whole northwest is the OREGONIAN

When a misfortune occurs it is easy enough always to blame somebody for it Often the public takes this method of giving vent to its indignation If the occurrence be a very atrocious one, like the recent massacre in Idaho, many feel that they cannot suitably express their detestation and horror unless they can find some one on whom to throw the blame There are those who charge Gen Howard with the responsibility of this outbreak and claim that he ought to have prevented it The Idaho Avalanche is particularly unreasonable in its denunciation But what would it have asked him to do? He could not kill these Indians before they had committed acts of hostility and murder, nor could he even seize and hold them under military guard The policy of the government in dealing with the Indians is a fair subject for criticism All people who know much about Indians believe it a mistake The origin of the present outbreak is far back in this policy, and in the progress of it With it Gen Howard has had almost nothing to do, and what he has done has been in obedience to specific orders. It is strangely unjust, therefore, to assert that he is to be blamed for the affair

If California shall have 150,000 tons of wheat for export it is all that can be expected by the most sanguine compiler of statistics Oregon will have only 50,000 tons more. California papers now inform us that the effects of drouth will be severely felt by orchardists as well as by grain-growers All kinds of fruit, except perhaps grapes and figs, have suffered from extreme heat. Very large quantities of inferior and damaged fruit are being thrown on the market.

The Lewiston Teller says that in the fight with Capt. Perry's force the Indians had only 70 men They took 30 guns from dead soldiers and those who had thrown them away. Only four Indians were wounded, one of them mortally. In the fight much of the stock they had stolen from the settlers on the prairie scattered and ran back. This information comes from Indians who were held as prisoners in Joseph's camp but made their escape

The complaint against Samuel J Tilden alleges that he owes the government $141 442—this being the amount of tax due on his income from 1861 to 1871, beyond the sums he paid from year to year, which were small It is alleged that in 1869 his income was $1,000, though he paid on only $15 000

The New York Tribune, in heading its dispatches, locates the Indian difficulties in Oregon. The Chicago Times in its editorials does the same thing. With better intelligence the Chicago Tribune has laid the scene in the proper locality

SECTIONAL POLITICS

At the south the great war is not forgotten. Because it is not forgotten, sixteen states are firmly united for a common political object It is the recollection of the war that makes a solid south and which will maintain that solidarity for years still to come The north has been adjured and has adjured itself, to forget the war and its passions and to cease voting on its issues In part it has done so Not so the south Politics have assumed a singular fashion If the party that holds ascendency in the section that adhered to the union and upheld national principles ever makes an appeal to the country on a subject relating to the war and its settlements there is an outcry at once about the 'bloody shirt and sectional hate, but the opposite party can consolidate the section that made war to destroy national unity, and do it on the surviving memories and lingering passions of the war and there is no sectionalism in it Men are reproached in the north for asserting the national idea of government though this was victorious in the struggle, while the dominant party in the south assert, without rebuke the confederate idea, which was supposed to have been annihilated, and organize their politics upon it The man who speaks of the war from a national point of view is called a bloody-shirt partisan, but he who discusses it from a confederate standpoint and contends for his opinions is known as a conservative and spoken of as a patriot.

A consequence of all this is that the north has become seemingly half ashamed of its efforts to maintain its political principles, and is trying to forget them, while the south takes new courage and engages with new activity in consolidating its political power on the ideas held before and during the war So, throughout the north there is the voice of remonstrance, entreaty and expostulation against any mention of the political issues that came to trial in the civil war throughout the south there is incessant and fearless appeal for the re-establishment of the very principles out of which the rebellion sprung and every state and every congressional district is firmly cemented as a political force in response to this appeal We enter here into no discussion of this stage which our national politics have reached It is the present purpose merely to point to it as the most prominent phase of the existing political situation It is presageful of the course of future political contests, and makes it certain that sectional divisions and the old warfare carried on in the name of states against the national government, is not at an end

THAT MOURNFUL MEETING

All the eastern papers have articles on the speech delivered by Mr. Tilden at the Manhattan Club, and very few speak of the performance with commendation, or even with respect. The Chicago Times which supported him as a partisan, and the New Yrok Herald which gave him an independent support, are quite as pointed in their criticisms as the New York Times and Chicago Tribune. The Herald says "the parade of disappointment is indelicate, undignified and unmanly; the Democratic candidates dishonor themselves by rebelling at this late day against a settlement in which their own supporters in Congress participated and to which they consented by their silence." It is likely, says the New York Times "that the Tildenite will become the Jacobite of American politics without any of his elevating sentiment, but with more than his malignity and obtuseness," The meeting of Tilden and Hendricks, says the Cincinnati Gazette, "in the house from which the Oregon business was directed, is a severe reproof to 'fraud" Of Tilden's speech the New York Tribune says

The whole assembly knew that he was thinking of Gobble, and Patrick, and the Little Dictionary. His mind reverted to that fatal day when there came to Gramercy Park a cipher telegram from Patrick, calling for money to "purchase a Republican elector" in Oregon and so "prevent trouble,"—a dispatch to which Nephew Pelton replied by agreeing to pay the bribe if the purchased elector would wait till he had earned it. "If you make obligation contingent on result in March, it can be done, and increasable slightly," was the cautious answer of Mr. Tilden's household agent and assistant; and the world has not forgotten that when Patrick telegraphed back, "Can't make fee contingent, will take $5,000 for Republican elector," the money was sent, with the message "Let no technicality prevent winning." This is what Mr. Tilden and his listeners were thinking about on Tuesday night, and the reflection that fraud does not pay was perfectly natural under the circumstances What a pity the Democratic party will not learn from the lips of this venerable expert that in the long run fraud will never prosper!

VERY INDEPENDENT POLITICS

Iowa Republicans distinctly refuse to express approval of the administration and its policy. By a vote of three to one their convention tables a resolution of endorsement. No harm is done. The administration needs no party. It claims to proceed on the principle that party is to be disregarded. Republicans of Iowa feel, therefore, that they have a perfect right to assert their independence of the administration. The president, we may suppose, on his part cares not for the refusal to "endorse" him. The indifference appears to be mutual, and there is no present occasion for angry altercation. Hayes isn't Johnson, or a quarrel might be possible. If he would only talk back in a petulant and intemperate way it would give great satisfaction to a class who would like to see a row, or have a hand in it.

While Iowa Republicans were ignoring people and things, they would have exhibited much good sense had they also refused to take notice of the delusion in regard to the silver dollar But, like most men of both parties in the great middle states, they are under the hallucination that ninety-two cents can be made a dollar simply by declaring it so. This delusion will become a reality when platform-makers get clever enough to prove that two and two make five. Platforms are tolerably safe so long as they deal in common generalities; but when they have to do with matters that require precision of statement and something like an accurate comprehension of a subject, it is as well for the architects to be a little careful. For the rest Iowa Republicans have done well enough In the main their proceedings show a tendency toward very independent politics Manifestly they don't intend to be beaten on this line by the administration

FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 29.

CITY.

WASCO COUNTY MINES.—Mr. Ben C... an old and well known citizen of W... ton county, returned a few days since... tour of inspection to the famous... Springs of Wasco county. This is the... visit which Mr. Cornelius has made... discoveries within the past two months... was very skeptical as to the reported... and extent of these mines until a per... spection was made. Mr Cornelius ... presses the fullest confidence in these... "a fact, he believes they will prove a... ble "bonanza" Last fall the and... gentleman employed an experienced... visit those regions for the express pu... prospecting. The person so employed... spent the past winter there, and dur... time has prospected over a large area... try with very encouraging results to... parties concerned A few weeks ago... Cornelius in company with two other... men, visited the mines. Although... still he saw quite enough to overcome... skepticism Some time ago a quantity... mud and quartz was forwarded to... Hanks, of San Francisco, for assay. ... resulted very satisfactorily, the yield... mud and rock at the spring with a sluice... sult When the two assayists came to... pare the result of the tests, they found... average yield in almost the same proportion... Mr Cornelius says that Prof. Hurlbut... sanguine, and has been heard to declare... "it beats the world" Some placer... have also been discovered, which yield... way from 2 to 30 cents to the pan. ... nelius declares that the whole country... filled with quartz. There is a solid mass... of the rock, portions of which have been... sayed and found to yield largely in... precious metals. In some portions of the... country, ledges of quartz protrude through... from the earth and extend for miles in... stretch. So far as he has been able to... ince from a necessarily hasty investigation... Cornelius is firmly impressed with the... that immense wealth is scattered throughout... regions over which he traveled, which... and capital will surely develop. The... bers of the party, of whom Mr. Cornelius... one, have located claims along the Deschutes... river for a distance of 70 miles. Mr. Cornelius expects to return to these mines in a few weeks.

NUMBER CONVICTED.—Thus or during the present term of the state circuit court the following persons have been indicted, convicted and sentenced: Jeremiah Dougherty, robbery, sentenced for five years; Geo. B. Thorne, robbery, sentenced for five years; Ah Jim, larceny, sentenced for one year; Ah Ong Gong, assault with a dangerous weapon, sentenced for 1 year; Ah Hoey, larceny, sentence for 1 year; Wm. H. Sewall, larceny, will receive sentence to-day; James Johnson who has been indicted has been committed a circumstance which speaks well for the strict attorney and his deputy.

HEAVILY FINED.—Wednesday afternoon persons were tried before Justice James Reed and a lad named Marquam... defendants were charged with assaulting a Chinaman about three miles southwest of the city. From all the circumstances of the case it appears that the Chinaman and Marquam had some difficulty resulting in blows, when Reed interfered and administered a severe castigation. After hearing all the testimony in the case the court fined Reed $45 for his participation in the affair On motion of the district attorney Marquam was discharged.

THE "MULTNOMAH."—The board of directors of the Oregon Steamship Co. has determined to christen the new steamer, which is to be constructed at Chester, Pa., by the well known of steamship-builders, John Roach, the Multnomah, after our beautiful and fertile county This new craft will be 300 feet long, 40 feet beam instead of 290, as previously published, and 9 feet deep says that she will be very fast, and for safety and steamship in the world for speed, beauty, strength and comfort, and he will be just as good as his word. The Multnomah will be 2,200 tons burden, and draw 14 feet light. She will be a model of beauty and no mistake.

ALLOWED HIS CLAIM.—At the time that Mr. Nicholls was taken down with the small pox last year in East Portland, Jacob Ackerman was employed to nurse him. Anderson refused upon him 11 days, when the patient... He presented a claim against the municipality for $110, claiming $10 per day for his service. This bill for some reason was disputed, and Anderson instituted suit against the city at the present term of the state circuit court. Yesterday the case came on for trial The jury brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $100, $10 less than the amount of his claim

BADLY SCARED.—A small lad named Welch, while on his way a few days since to attend a Grange picnic held in Powell's Valley was dreadfully frightened by a large snake As he was passing along a large shed he came with her young came out of a hole in the ground ahead of him. He was nearly frightened to death, and beat a hasty retreat to the house and gave the alarm. Several of the neighbors, with dogs, were soon on the ground and killed all of the animals, which they succeeded in doing out of danger to people in this vicinity

ANOTHER CELEBRATION.—And now the patriotic citizens of Sandy precinct propose to celebrate the glorious Fourth by holding a picnic, and observing the old time honored exercises. The celebration will be held at the Smith ranch grove, on Rock Creek tumble slough. Several of the neighboring Sunday schools have signified their determination of participating in the celebration There will be an oration delivered by P. P. Wager, music and other appropriate exercises. All are cordially invited to attend

WASCO COUNTY MINES.—Mr. Ben Cornelius, a well and well known citizen of Washington county, returned a few days since from a visit of inspection to the famous Silver mines of Wasco county. This is the second time which Mr. Cornelius has made to these properties within the past two months. He was very skeptical as to the reported richness and extent of these mines until a personal inspection was made. Mr. Cornelius now expresses the fullest confidence in these springs. In fact, he believes they will prove a veritable "Comstock." Last fall he and another gentleman employed an experienced miner to visit these regions for the express purpose of prospecting. The person so employed has been in the mining regions but a few days, and has seen quite enough to overcome all his doubts. Some time ago a quantity of the rock and quartz was forwarded to Prof. Hurley, of San Francisco, for assay. The test was very satisfactorily, the yield being $100 per ton. Prof. Hurley made an assay of the same rock at the spring with a similar result. When the two assayists came to compare the result of the tests, they found the yield in almost the same proportion. Mr. Cornelius says that Prof. Hurley is very "reliable" and has been heard to declare that "there is no humbug." Some placer diggings have also been discovered, which yield at the rate from 2 to 30 cents to the pan. Mr. Cornelius declares that the whole country is filled with quartz. There is a solid mountain of rock, portions of which have been assayed and found to yield largely of the precious metals. In some portions of the country ledges of quartz protrude several feet above the earth and extend for miles at a time. So far as he has been able to determine from a necessarily hasty investigation, Mr. Cornelius is firmly impressed with the belief that immense wealth is scattered through the region over which he traveled, which time will surely develop. The members of the party, of whom Mr. Cornelius is one, have located claims along the Crooked river for a distance of 70 miles. Mr. Cornelius expects to return to these mines in a few days.

ARREST CONVICTED.—Thus or during the present term of the state circuit court the following persons have been indicted, tried, convicted and sentenced: Jeremiah Dunn, grand larceny, sentenced for five years; John Brown, robbery, sentenced for five years; Ah Jim, larceny, sentenced for 1 year; Ah Hoey, larceny, sentenced for 1 year; Wm. H. Sewall, larceny, 1 year; Mrs. ——, sentence to-day; James Waters, assault, will be sentenced to day. Every person who has been indicted has been convicted, except one who speaks well for the district attorney and his deputy.

DAILY FINED.—Wednesday afternoon two persons were tried before Justice Bybee—Jesse Reed and a lad named Marquam. The defendants were charged with assaulting a Chinaman about three miles southwest of the city. From all the circumstances of the case it appears that the Chinaman and young Marquam had some difficulty resulting in blows when Reed interfered and gave the Celestial a severe castigation. ## COMMON COUNCIL.

REGULAR MEETING, JUNE 28, 1877.

The meeting of the new council was held last evening at the chamber. His Honor Mayor Newbury in the chair; W. S. Caldwell and Chief Lappeus, in attendance.

Members present—Andrus, Lambert, Opitz, Simon, Skidmore, Stemme, Stephens, Wiley and Yocum.

Minutes of the last regular meeting read and approved.

Councilman Skidmore moved that the regular order of business be suspended, so that council might proceed at once to the election of an auditor and clerk. Some opposition was evinced, but Mr. Skidmore's motion prevailed.

Nominations being in order, Mr. Skidmore nominated Mr. W. S. Caldwell. No other nominations were made.

The members proceeded to ballot, with the following result: Caldwell, 4; Gambell, 3; blank, 2. No election.

Councilman Wiley moved that further voting for auditor and clerk be discontinued for the evening; carried.

MAYOR'S MESSAGE.

His Hon. Mayor Newbury submitted the following message, which was read, and on motion referred to the committee on judiciary:

To the Hon. the Common Council of the City of Portland:—The provisions of Sec. 40 of the city charter would seem to imply that upon assuming the duties of his office, the mayor should communicate to you "a general statement of the condition and affairs of this municipal corporation" and make all needful recommendations.

It is apparent that to fully comply with this provision would require a knowledge of details only to be acquired by time and close application; and that recommendations from one fresh from the walks of private life must be very general.

The proper time for a message, reviewing the condition and affairs of the city and making specific recommendations for future action, would be at the commencement of the fiscal year, (January 1st), at which time the general work for the year is laid out, the estimates of expenditures made, and the taxes levied, in accordance therewith.

The auditor's semi-annual report, embracing the substance of the treasurer's quarterly report, will be presented at the next meeting, and will show the present state of the finances.

By confining the expenditures as nearly as practicable to the estimates for the present year, it is probable the revenue will be sufficient to meet all ordinary demands.

You will be advised of the condition of the police, fire and other department funds by the auditor's report.

I am informed the fire apparatus is in good condition, and the efficiency of the department is too well known and appreciated to require comment from me. The chief engineer's report for the year ending July 1st, when presented, will probably furnish you with full details.

I would suggest that the standing committees be so changed, that what is now known as the committee on streets and public property shall have charge of the streets only.

And that a new committee be formed styled committee on public property.

And that the title of the committee now known as the committee on river improvement be changed to committee on commerce, which shall embrace all the duty now performed by the committee on river improvements and landings and wharves, which latter committee should be discontinued, leaving the number of committees the same as at present, but distributing the labor more evenly between them, thus affording the committee on streets and public property much relief; and for the further reason that the committee on river improvements has no duties to perform, the United States government having assumed sole jurisdiction of the matter and earnestly undertaken the work of improving the rivers which are the feeders of the commerce of the queen city of the northwest.

There are several matters which I deem important to which I shall at a future time invite your attention; and from time to time, as objects arise of special interest, I shall take occasion to present to you my views.

In conclusion, I would say that I shall take great pleasure in co operating with you in such measures as will characterize our administration of city affairs, as one of economy and devotion to the public interests. Respectfully submitted.

W. S. NEWBURY, Mayor.

Portland, June 28, 1877.

INVITATION EXTENDED.

The following communication was read and the the invitation accepted:

PORTLAND, June 28, 1877.

To His Honor the Mayor and, Common Council of the city of Portland—GENTLEMEN: I am requested, on behalf of the committee of arrangements and the Common Council of the city of Albany, to extend you a cordial invitation to be present at and participate in the celebration, at our city, of the Fourth of July, 1877.

If accepted we promise you a cordial welcome and the hospitalities of the city.

MART. V. BROWN, On behalf of committee.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

The mayor announced the following standing committees:

Ways and Means—Stemme, Skidmore, Wiley.

Fire and Water—Andrus, Yocum, Opitz.
Streets and Public Property—Lambert, Simon, Stephens.
Landings and Wharves—Opitz, Stemme, Andrus.
Health and Police—Skidmore, Stephens, Yocum.
Judiciary—Yocum, Simon, Stemme.
Elections—Simon, Andrus, Lambert.
River Improvements—Stephens, Wiley.

After the transaction of some other minor business, the council adjourned until Wednesday evening, July 11th.

AMUSEMENTS.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE.—A very appreciative audience was present last evening at New Market Theater, to witness the great Irish drama, "Eileen Oge." Want of space precludes an extended notice of the play. Suffice it to say that the drama was presented in capital style—with strict regard to costumes, properties, and scenic effects. The acting was vivacious, the dialogue sprightly, and the situations interesting. Each part was entrusted to competent hands, and each character found a fitting representative. There was no hitches nor delay. Everything ran without friction and a delighted audience was the result. Mr. Bert, the very courteous and efficient manager, is sparing neither pains, expense nor labor to please the public by presenting in rapid succession a number of very attractive pieces. The people ought to manifest their appreciation of Manager Bert's efforts to cater to public taste by patronizing him liberally. He has gone to the expense of bringing a large company to this city, and his efforts should be promptly seconded by lovers of amusements. To night a real treat is promised to the public—one which it is hoped will be appreciated and the theater correspondingly patronized. For the first time in Portland Leonard Grover's great American comedy entitled "Our Boarding House," and "The Big Bonanza," will be presented, thus offering a double attraction for one night only. This will be one of the most attractive bills of the present dramatic season. Do not fail to attend. To-morrow afternoon grand matinee performance, on which occasion will be presented "The Overland Route." Saturday evening the thrilling sensational drama of "Oliver Twist." Next Monday evening Miss Katy Mayhew will appear for the first time in Portland in her great impersonation of "Fanchon, the Cricket." More novelties in course of preparation.

WILLOW WIELDERS.

There will be a match game of base ball Saturday next, June 27th, between the Athletic base ball club of this city and the Pedro base ball club of Mt. Tabor. The game promises to be very interesting and close, as both nines are in excellent trim and both feel confident of success. The Athletics have defeated all the Portland clubs and will do their best for the Mt. Tabor club. The Athletics will present their best nine, which is as follows: F. Gaines, c.; F. Effinger, p.; G. Curry, s. s.; S. Bird, 1st b.; C. Holcomb, 2d b.; F. Giltner, 3d b.; G. Parsons, l. f.; T. Hurlburt, c. f.; E. Watkins, r. f. The game will commence at 2 o'clock sharp.

PERSONAL.

Mr. O. V. Gerzabek, the gentlemanly traveling agent for the large house of A. C. Dietz & Co., of San Francisco, will take his departure overland for San Francisco to-morrow morning, after a brief sojourn in this city. Mr. Gerzabeck is very favorably impressed with our young and rapidly growing state, and will doubtless carry hence a good report. We wish him a pleasant and profitable trip.

Ladies' linen suits sold cheaper at J. Harris & Son's Emporium of Fashion than in any store in the city.

Fine fashionable dress and business suits, at bedrock prices, at Kohn's clothing palace, corner of First and Morrison streets.

The largest assortment of ladies' linen suits in the city, can be found at J. Harris & Son's Emporium of Fashion.

New novelties in lace scarfs and bibs, ruching, embroideries, fans, beads, etc., at Mrs. Charles Tichner's, 126 First street.

Clothing is sold at prices that defy competition at Kohn's corner of First and Morrison streets.

EAST PORTLAND AND VICINITY.

The weather still proves unfavorable for camp meetings and picnics.

Many fears are entertained that the late heavy rains will beat down the grain fields to a damaging extent.

Messrs. Burden and Gray have just added a neat and substantial altar railing to the East Portland M. E. church. This will prove to be a very useful improvement.

The plan for the new school house in East Portland, drawn by Mr. Piper, has been presented to the directors, and meets with very general approval by those who have seen it.

Two or three years ago Mr. H. Hanson sold, by mistake, to Mr. Wm. Connell, a seedling cherry tree, which now proves a great bearer of splendid cherries, surpassing even the Senator Morton.

On Tuesday of last week Mr. John Deardorff succeeded in raising his new barn—41 by 60, with 12-foot shed on the west side—without the slightest accident. The framer, Mr. D. Lentz, is an experienced workman.

Mrs. Root will this day close her first quarter's instruction in vocal music, given to a class of boys and girls in East Portland. She has given very general satisfaction by her thorough method of teaching the rudiments of musical science.

A party of four admirers of Isaak Walton's favorite amusement, spent a few hours last Wednesday on the banks of Johnson's creek—about thirty nice speckled trout changing their native element as the result. Johnson's creek was voted a failure.

The excursion to the Cascades by the steamer Gazelle, on Wednesday last, went off in good style. One of Estey's celebrated Cottage organs was in use, kindly furnished for the occasion by C. F. Shepherd & Co., the accommodating agents, 109 Front street, Portland.

A brief visit to the farm of Mr. Christian Deardorff, ten miles southeast of this city, was attended with favorable impressions of the industry and substantial worth of this old Oregonian. Mr. Deardorff is surrounded with his sons and daughters, all in good circumstances and occupying delightful homes.

On Saturday last, Clara Exon, aged 6 years, daughter of Rev. John Exon, very narrowly escaped death by drowning. Mr. Exon lives on the south bank of the Columbia, seven miles from the city. Clara was running along the bank toward the house, and not observing that the bank had recently caved in, taking a portion of the path away, she stepped right off into the swollen current. Fortunately one of her sisters saw her. The alarm was given, and in some manner she managed to keep herself afloat until her father reached her with a skiff, just as she was disappearing beneath the waters.

SENATORS MORTON, SAULSBURY AND M'MILLAN ARRIVED.

The committee appointed on behalf of the Portland board of trade to welcome to our city the distinguished senatorial committee consisting of Senators Morton, Saulsbury and McMillan, departed on the steamer Vancouver yesterday afternoon and when about ten miles down the river they met the steamer Dixie Thompson from Kalama, having on board the senatorial party. The gentlemen of the committee, namely, Messrs. Jno. McCraken, Chas. Hodge, Phil. Wasserman, Fred. Townsend, Isam White, Wm. Kapus and Isaac Blum were transferred to the latter steamer where they met Senator Corbett of the committee who had accompanied the Morton party from Tacoma. Introductions followed, then an address of welcome from Col. McCraken which was replied to by Senator Morton in behalf of himself and colleagues. The board of trade, through Mr. Corbett, then tendered the senatorial party a reception at such time as will best suit their convenience. After consultation Monday evening next was accepted as the time most suitable. On the arrival of the Dixie, the senators and their families entered the carriages which had been provided and departed for their quarters. Mr. and Mrs. Morton and their son, will be the guests of Mr. Ben. Holladay during their stay. Mr. and Mrs. McMillan, Mr. Saulsbury, Secretary Alexander and wife, and Sergeant-at-arms Burbank, will remain at the St. Charles. An invitation has been extended our distinguished guests to participate in the 4th of July festivities at Albany, and we learn that it has been accepted.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

The furniture and fixtures of residence corner of Seventh and Stark will be sold this morning at 10 o'clock; Kilbourn, auctioneer.

Fleischner, Mayer & Co., have removed to 9 and 11, Front street, in the building formerly occupied by L. White & Co., and which extends back to First street.

Our lady readers, in particular, are requested to read the announcement of Mr. John Cran & Co., found in another column. That firm has just received, per City of Chester, a new and magnificent line of goods. The new stock comprises ruchings, ties, bibs and fichus; sequin buttons in steel, pearl and shell; vegetable ivory suits, linen suits and dusters, dress linens, embroideries, shawls, skirts, dress goods, etc., etc. Owing to the lateness of the season, all of this splendid stock will be offered at such prices as will insure their speedy clearance. Call early.

WALTER A. WOOD'S HARVESTER AND SELF-BINDERS.

From the Wisconsin State Journal, published at Madison, Wis., we take the following:

GREAT SALE OF HARVESTING MACHINES.—Probably the greatest sale of harvesting machines ever made in the United States, at any one time, for any one firm, has just been made by FULLER, JOHNSON & CO., of this city. OLIVER DALRYMPLE, of St. Paul, who has 8,000 acres in wheat, in the Red River valley, has bought from FULLER, JOHNSON & CO., thirty one WALTER A. WOOD Self-Binding Harvesters. DALRYMPLE had ten of these machines last year, with which he harvested the 3,800 acres he then had in grain, so that he knows just what he is about. The forty-one machines are expected to harvest the 8,000 acres, and do it up in good season, being about 200 acres to each machine.

We understand that MR. WOOD has just filled a cash order for Binders to go to Australia and New Zealand, amounting to about $100 000 in gold. This order resulted from a few Binders sent out on trial for last harvest.

The Mercury denies that Gov. Chadwick sent a dispatch to Washington stating that Walla Walla was in danger of Indian attack. He said Wallowa.

"Are we Almost There"?

Where? Why, Fishel & Roberts', where you get those stylish suits that are noted for wear and durability.

Ladies, if you want a nice cashmere dress go to the Emporium of Fashion of J. Harris & Son.

Mrs. B. A. Owens, M.D., Office and residence, east side First street, between Yamhill and Taylor. Special attention given to Women and Children complaints. Also gives Medicated Vapor Baths, combined with Electricity, in treating Rheumatism and Chronic Diseases.

The Medical Institute of Dr. W. L. Adams, corner of First and Salmon streets, will be removed to Hood river in a few months. Till then chronic diseases of men and women will be treated in Portland as usual. An accomplished lady assistant to give baths to ladies and assist in their treatment always in the office.

Instead of making a "tour around the world," go to Fabre's Chateau du Versailles.

FIELD ORDER No. 10.

Capt. Wm. F. Spurgin, 21st Infantry, is hereby temporarily detached from his company. He will proceed to Lewiston and take command of the town and environs as a field and sub-depot. The non-resident non-combatants, and such other women and children as may wish to join them, will be escorted by the cavalry detachment to Lewiston, where the commandant will secure for them such shelter and comforts as may be necessary. The town authorities having expressed a thorough willingness to give aid will cooperate with and assist the commandant. All military organizations, of any kind, will be subject to the order of the commandant. The commandant will take particular pains to arrest disaffected Indians and favor the friendly; to prevent the circulation and forwarding of demoralizing reports; to hinder drunkenness and disorder, and do such other acts as may be necessary to facilitate a clear-headed and vigorous prosecution of the campaign now in hand.

"Making Old Bones."

People who neglect their minor ailments rarely live to make old bones. The secret of hale and vigorous old age, lies not only in taking care of one's health in early life, by the observance of sanitary rules, but also by judicious medication when the premonitory symptoms of bodily disorder manifest themselves. Indigestion, bowel and liver complaints, are fruitful causes of injury to the constitution. These diseases should be, therefore checked without delay. The best medicine for the purpose is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This standard preparation disciplines the digestive organs, gives renewed impetus to the bilious secretive functions, and exerts a beneficial influence upon the organs of urination. It has no rival as a remedy for and preventive of chills and fever and bilious remittents, infuses vigor into the debilitated frame and is an excellent appetizer and nervine.

With the advent of warm weather the promotion of good health is a matter of solicitude, and it is only necessary to add that "Noble Whisky will do the business." This business is done at Millard & Vanschuyver's, 89 Front st.

Flashing in their pearly sheen,
From the glorious coralline,
See those teeth untarnished!
White alike the back and front,
Yes, by the fragrant SOZODONT,
May beauty's mouth be garnished!

Murder Will Out.

A few years ago "August Flower" was discovered to be a certain cure for Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint; a few thin Dyspeptics made known to their friends how easily and quickly they had been cured by its use. The great merits of GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER became heralded through the country by one sufferer to another, until, without advertising, its sale has become immense. Druggists in EVERY TOWN in the United States are selling it. No person suffering with Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Low Spirits, etc., can take three doses without relief. Go to your Druggist and get a bottle for 75 cents and try it. Sample bottles 10 cents. Agents, Crane & Brigham, wholesale druggists, San Francisco.

Movement of Troops.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 27.—Two companies of the 12th U. S. Infantry, Co. B of Angel Island and Co. F of Alcatraz, left yesterday morning for Camp McDermott.

The Mint Director's Visit.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 27.—Dr. Linderman, mint director, who arrived last night by overland train, says his visit to San Francisco is for the purpose of making the annual examination into the affairs of the mint, and has no connection with any charges that have been preferred against any employe of the government. He said further he had no knowledge of charges having been made against any person connected with the mint in this city.

Another Version of Linderman's Object.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 27.—Since his arrival here last night, Dr. Linderman, mint director, has been very reticent as to his mission to this coast, and in statements to reporters of the morning papers showed an evident disposition to keep them in the dark or put them on a false scent. It has been, however, ascertained from trustworthy sources that his business here is to thoroughly investigate federal offices, beginning with the mint. He is armed with authority to organize a commission consisting of himself and two others to be selected by himself from among reputable citizens in whom he can place implicit confidence. This commission will have power to administer oaths, and will begin operations in a few days.

Sale of Silver.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—The Nevada bank has sold $400,000 in trade dollars for shipment by steamer on the 3d proximo, and $1,000,000 in fine silver for the same, and the following steamer. This clears out the supply of trade dollars, and no more can be had until the re-opening of the mint in July. The Carson mint is still engaged in finishing up an order for trade dollars for the bank of California, but will close down to-morrow or next day. The market for fine silver is also pretty well cleared.

The Stock Boards.

The stock boards will adjourn Saturday noon until Thursday morning.

Acapulco Retaken.

By the arrival of the Colima from Panama we have news from Alcapulco that on the 16th inst., after a bombardment of nearly ten days by the Diaz gunboats, Alvarez capitulated. He surrendered the fort and 250 men to the naval forces who thereupon entered the town. The terms of capitulation are yet secret for some reason known only to the opposing commanders, but it is known that amicable relations exist between the two forces. Soldiers of quondam opposing armies are holding high carnival in the streets of Acapulco. Arm in arm they are drinking and carousing and apparently the best of friends. It is hinted that Alvarez has gone over to the enemy, but information is extremely meager. American residents of Acapulco are as yet undecided whether to leave the place or not. They have so far escaped serious molestation, but announce their intention of appealing to the United States if they are subjected to insults or hardships of civil war.

The Bay City's Charity.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28—11 P. M.—The work of raising funds for the benefit of the St. Johns sufferers progresses very slowly here. The general committee appointed at the meeting yesterday to canvass the city met this evening. No money has yet been collected. Sub-committees were appointed to work in designated districts of the city. A motion was made to appoint a special committee to wait on the clergymen of the city, but the project was dropped—on the suggestion of one of the members that it was "no use, as they were all busted in stocks." It seemed to be generally conceded that there was, at any rate, some truth in the remark. Against this may be placed the fact that the sole subscription thus far received by the relief committee, was a check for $5 from a clergyman at Lakeport.

Desperate Attempt to Evade the Law.

LOS ANGELES, June 27.—This morning at 10 o'clock, Judge Gray was to render a decision in the case of F. Tamiet, proprietor of the Union on a charge of forgery, but at five minutes of 10 Tamiet stepped into his office in Temple block and shot himself close to the right ear, slightly in front. He is still alive conversing in French, asserts his innocence of any criminal intent, but declares he wishes to die. He has been removed to the French hospital, where an attempt will be made to remove the ball. The decision in the case against him is reserved, but supposed to be adverse to him.

Weather Report.

STOCKTON, June 27.—Weather to-day very warm and pleasant until about 3 o'clock, when a stiff cool breeze commenced blowing from the southwest. This evening the sky is almost completely overcast with dark clouds. A few drops of rain have fallen.

OROVILLE, June 27.—It began raining here at 11 o'clock last night; rained slowly through the night and all day up to the present time. It is now pouring down as hard as any time last winter. So far grain is not injured. At Cherokee 94-100 has fallen.

WOODLAND, June 27.—Weather much changed from last week. Yesterday and to-day decidedly cool and cloudy with several sprinkles of rain; wind south and quite strong.

COLUSA, June 27.—Rain commenced falling last night, and continued steadily all day; to-night cloudy; wind west; looks as if it will rain hard before morning.

SAN JOSE, June 27.—It has been cloudy with slight indications of rain during the day; now cool and delightful.

CHICO, June 27.—The extreme heat of the past two weeks came to a sudden end day before yesterday; when the wind changed to south and it began to rain at 8 last night. It has rained in showers ever since. The rain will not do any material damage unless it blows hard soon after. All harvesting has ceased for the present. Cloudy, wind south, still threatening rain to-night.

SACRAMENTO, June 27.—It is raining here now; wind in the right quarter for continuance.

LOS ANGELES, June 27.—Clear, calm, thermometer 66.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

News Items.

VICTORIA, June 28.—A naval regatta is in progress at Esquimalt in honor of the Queen's coronation.

The judges of the supreme court have allowed a decree of divorce, the first in the province.

The reported massacre at Athabasca proves to have been a hoax.

A farmer named T. Richardson, living at Chemainus, was shot and killed by an Indian on Saturday last in his own doorway.

The government mining engineer has reported that the silver and copper lodes of Howe's Sound are richer than those of California or Nevada. The formation is granite, the lodes two and a half feet thick, wood plentiful, and the mine situated on the seashore. Cinnabar has been discovered at Bute Inlet.

A public meeting is called for Friday to provide relief for the St. Johns sufferers.

OREGON.

Schooner Hera took from Astoria to San Francisco 13,250 cases of salmon, valued at $82,115.

Eugene City folks advertise a "big bill" for the Fourth of July. "740 Plug-Uglies' (Sons of Malta) and '1 mule.'"

Rev. Addison Jones and family will remove from Oregon to Ohio. Mr. Jones has filled the Baptist pulpit at Salem for a considerable time with general acceptability.

The Fourth will be celebrated in good style in Clackamas county. The following places observe this time-honored day: Molalla, Sancy, Oswego, Soda Springs, Milwaukie, and last, but not least, Oregon City.

Building goes on unabated in Astoria. At no time the past spring and summer has there been less than from thirty to sixty buildings in process of construction in various parts of the city. Three new buildings, says the Astorian of Thursday, were raised yesterday, and we hear of four new ones to be commenced to-day.

The Astorian: In spite of the best efforts of the "bulls" to show an increase in the supply of salmon from the Columbia river this year, the facts prove that up to this time shipments are 2,500 cases below a corresponding period of 1876, and the stock is kept cleaned out.

An editorial article from the OREGONIAN, beginning with, "They are coming from California," has been published in almost every paper of the state. None have attributed it to its real source, and the Salem Record closes the list by giving it a prominent place in its columns and attributing it to the Mountaineer.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Financial.

TUESDAY EVENING, June 26, 1877

Gold in New York, 105⅞.

Legal Tenders in Portland—buying 94; selling 95.

Silver Coin—4@5 per cent. discount.

Domestic Produce.

In this line of trade the season offers but little subject matter for comment. Breadstuffs are in very light receipt, the old being about exhausted and the new crop not yet in. Some quotations are given still as high as $2 per cental for wheat, while others who are supposed to be in the market quote at $1 75. In the face of the remarkably small quantity now offered for sale quotations are very nearly useless, but we give them for what they are worth. Flour is not changed and there is but little now in sight than will supply the home trade with average shipments to the north until the new crop comes in. Oats are not greatly in demand and receipts are so light as to induce the belief last year's crop has nearly all been disposed of. Prices still tend downward rather than otherwise. Provisions are about as at our last report, with a very meagre demand for shipment. Mill feed is of dull sale and in light receipt. Hay is amply supplied and prices very low. Dairy products unchanged. Eggs selling at 18 cts per dozen, and dealers as well as consumers making much complaint of bad lots. Fruits and vegetables in season are abundant, and prices are down within the most moderate means of the consumers.

The chief object of attention in the market is wool, and prices are very firmly maintained. Receipts are very large and shipments corresponding. About the highest price paid here is 26@27 cents per lb, but the range of quotations is below.

New York Markets.

NEW YORK, June 27.—Markets still slow; flour in better demand; demand for higher grades of winter wheat for flours, both southern and western, is owing to light stocks, and prices advanced 10@12c. Wheat dull, 1@2c lower. Pork dull and easier. Rio coffee quiet but firm, stocks not offered freely. Refined sugars preserve a fine buoyant tone; powdered and granulated show greatest strength, although all grades are firm. Teas unchanged. Petroleum dull and easier; refined in barrels, 13; cases, 16½@18½. Hides firm, and demand active. Wool continues active, tendency of prices upward; demand continues for spring Californias, but receipts are light; sales of 30,000 lbs spring and 5,000 lbs fall private.

Liverpool Markets.

LIVERPOOL, June 27.—Wheat, spring No. 1 dull, 10s 1d@10s 6d; corn, mixed dull, 23s 9d.

San Francisco Markets.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Wheat—Shipping, $2 20, milling $2 25@2 30.

Barley—Feed, $1 5⅝@1 60; brewing, $1 62½@1 67½.

Corn—$1 70@1 75.

Oats—$1 90@2 20.

Potatoes—$1¾.

Gold—106⅞; Green backs, 94½@95; Silver, 6@6¼ discount.

NOTICE TO PERSONS INTENDING TO EMIGRATE TO OREGON.

Direct Passage from New York to Portland, Oregon.

LAND DEPARTMENT, O. & C. R. R., PORTLAND, June 25, 1877.

THE OREGON STEAMSHIP COMPANY HAS agreed to carry on its iron steamship, now being built at Chester, Pa., by John Roach & Son upon her completion, on or about the 15th day of January, 1878, steerage passengers from New York to Portland, direct, via the Straits of Magellan, at the extremely low rate of $75.00 currency, board included.

This steamer will be the best, strongest and most comfortably arranged ship ever built in the United States. Speed, 13½ knots. Dimensions: 290 feet in length; 38 feet beam; 23½ depth of hold; capacity, 2,200 tons; 200 cabin and 500 steerage passengers. The fitting out of steerage will receive special attention; it will be provided with all modern improvements and its ventilation will be perfect. Every attention will be paid to the comfort of passengers, and the fare will be of the best quality. Part of the deck room will be fitted up for recreating purposes, with a view to furnish passengers fresh meat during the whole voyage.

The voyage will be made in about sixty days.

To assist persons who desire to emigrate to Oregon, agricultural and other implements will be taken at very low rates.

For persons here who have friends in the Atlantic States wishing to come to Oregon this offers a rare opportunity, as the annoyances and fatigue of the overland route by rail are avoided, and the passage is considerably less.

For particular information address F. C. Schmidt; 1 South William street, New York, or

The Following Certificates Speak for Themselves:

TO DR. PAUL M. BRENAN—

For the past year and a half I have been suffering from Nervous and General Debility, Kidney Disease, Loss of Flesh and Strength, dizziness in the head and a constant pain through the back and loins. I became so debilitated and broken down that I was unfitted for business. I have been to Victoria and all over the coast under medical treatment for the past nine months, without receiving any benefit whatever, and had almost given up hopes of ever recovering, until I came under your treatment, about seven weeks ago. From the very first your treatment seemed to work like a charm, and I constantly improved from the beginning. I have gained 14 pounds of flesh, and I am now, thanks to your skillful treatment, perfectly well and am able to return to my business on the Snohomish. JAMES KING.

Seattle, March 31, 1877.

To the People: I have been troubled with chronic Nasal Catarrh for years, the disease being so aggravated that there was constantly an effusion of matter passing down into my throat behind the palate and down through my nostrils.

My nose became depressed between the eyes and swollen on each side. I was told by physicians that it was a polypus; that some of the blood vessels were involved and that the removal would endanger my life by hemorrhage. I became so bad that I made up my mind that I must have immediate relief or die.

As a last resort I applied to Dr. Paul M. Brenan, who, after a moment's examination, determined what to do. He said the nasal bone was involved and diseased, and that there would have to be a portion of it removed. He at once removed the bone tumor containing the ulcer; also the diseased portion of bone and putaceous gland and cured the catarrh. I am now perfectly well and as free from disease as ever I was in my life.

THOMAS D. MURPHY.

Seattle, April 6th, 1877.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN—Dear Sir: I take great pleasure in stating for the benefit of those who are afflicted with any chronic disease, that I am now a well man. For the past two years I have been under the medical treatment of different physicians, from which I have received no benefit. I have been suffering with general and nervous debility, a difficulty in my stomach, and at times dizziness and severe headache, almost incapacitating me for work. About three weeks ago I put myself under your care, and I can say with delight that I am cured and feel like myself again, after having partaken of your skillful treatment. To me more, labor is now a pleasure. I say this much, hoping it will be the means of attracting the suffering to you who can relieve and cure them.

Your's Truly, JOHN WILLARD.
Employed at Colman's Saw Mill, Seattle.

[I will not publish any cures performed by me unless by the full consent of the parties.]

PAUL M. BRENAN.

Dr. Brenan can be consulted, free of charge, at his office at the Clarendon Hotel, from 10 to 12 A. M., and at rooms 6 and 7 in Corbett's Block, corner of Front and Washington streets, Portland, Oregon, from 1.30 to 5, and 7 to 8 P. M.
